

Fall 2019 Humanities and Social Sciences Concentration Courses

PLEASE READ: If your attempt to enroll in a course has been blocked (red "X"), there are three likely causes: 1) you may lack prerequisites listed on the course section page (click the section link by the course for this information; 2) you have not secured permission from the instructor to enroll in the course section; 3) the department has limited initial enrollment to just their majors and will open up seats when the "open enrollment" period begins for all non-majors (toward the end of April). In any case, if you're interested in the course, email the instructor directly for override permission. Except for IDLS courses, the IDLS office cannot open up seats in a course controlled by another's department. Thank You!
