

Semester in Salamanca

Fall, Spring, Summer

The semester In Salamanca program provides a rich academic and cultural experience, with courses taught by dedicated faculty from the University of Salamanca. The program offers students a unique educational experience that combines academics with extensive exploration of the city and around Spain.

Courses:

Courses are taught in Spanish. Students are required to complete Intermediate Spanish (SPAN 232) prior to the start of the program. Students may also choose to complete a 3-credit internship course (spring semester only) at a local school by assisting teachers in classrooms and providing English/Spanish instructions to K-12 levels. Topics include:

- Art History
- Literature
- Medical Spanish
- Business Spanish
- Political Science
- General Education
