 - Summer School (20____) Spring Quarter (20____)

To earn a bachelor degree from JMU, all students must complete a minimum of 120 credit hours (some programs may require more). At least 50% of required hours must be earned at regionally accredited senior (four-year) institutions of higher education. At least 25% of required degree credit hours must be earned at JMU.

- Students will not receive transfer credit for courses equivalent to courses completed at James Madison University with a passing grade (D- or higher). Transfer courses may not be used to repeat/forgive courses previously taken at JMU.
- Transfer credit will be awarded by JMU only for courses in which the student earned a "C" (2.0 quality points) or better. This transfers as credit only, and will not impact a student's JMU GPA. Grades earned at other institutions will be calculated into the JMU cumulative GPA at graduation for honors eligible students who entered JMU prior to the 2015-2016 catalog year.

*Once enrolled in classes at JMU, students will be allowed to transfer no more than three courses for General Education credit and no more than one transferred course may be applied to any one Cluster. (See website link: <http://www.jmu.edu/gened/jmstudents.shtml>)

Students are responsible for having their transcripts sent to JMU's Office of the Registrar at the address above when work is completed. Contact the transferring institution's Registrar's office for appropriate forms.
