

MINOR IN

BOOK ARTS

The minor in book arts is a cross disciplinary program designed to broaden students' understanding of the value and role of the art of the book in general culture while enhancing written and visual creativity, artistic production and the ability to think independently. Students enrolled in any degree program may minor in book arts by completing a minimum of 21 credit hours. The student's minor program is subject to the approval of the school director. A total of nine credit hours may be double counted between the minor and the major.
